5. Go on at least one date a week with your fiancé - text a picture of your date (or some other proof) to your mentor couple primarily as a reminder to them that they should be praying for you. Take turns planning the date and keep in mind what the other likes and not so much what you like. Mentors are encouraged to go on a weekly date as well if they are not already doing so. Look up "The Five Love Languages" and try to figure out what love language you each speak so you can plan dates that they will appreciate.

7. Spend an hour in prayer together with your mentor couple - this is a time of prayer for your marriages. Ideally, this will be at a church. It doesn't have to be all at one time: it can simply be staying late after church to pray a few times so that it adds up to one hour.
