

FREE Family Catechesis Resources

Videos

---

Formed: Great Catholic videos, podcasts, and readings for both kids and adults. Go to formed.org - click 'sign-up' - select 'I belong to a Parish or Organization' - find our cluster - enter your email - enter our parish code is: 87e81f

EWTN: Faith-based programming for younger kids - <https://video.ewtn.com/kids/>

Fr. Mike's most popular videos all in one spot. These are great for older kids and adults. They answer some of the most asked questions about our Catholic faith. <http://media.ascensionpress.com/category/ascension-presents/fr-mike-schmitz/>

Mix of reading, lessons, videos, and/or activities

---

Catholic Mom: This site has a little of everything... articles, podcasts, videos, kids tab, family tab, and much more. <http://catholicmom.com/>

This site has a daily reflection piece for adults and a weekly pamphlet for kids to follow along during Mass and then complete activities for reflection after. <https://us.magnificat.net/free>

Catholic Online School: Free Catholic lessons for all ages. There are highlighted videos at the top, but once you scroll down, you can choose lessons by grade level. <https://www.catholiconline.school/>

Teaching Catholic Kids: This site has a little of everything... A great place to start is 'Downloads for your Family' <https://teachingcatholickids.com/>

Personal Blogs with Activities (younger to middle-aged kids)

Catholic Icing: You can tell this blog has been around for a while-- she has tons of ideas for every season and holiday! <https://www.catholicicing.com/> (can also follow on Facebook)

Sara J Creations: She has many generic homeschool activities as well as Catholic-specific ideas-- just be sure to click on the Catholic tab at the top if that's what you're interested in. <https://www.sarajcreations.com/>

Facebook Page

Catholic Kids: They post videos, crafts, and activities for younger to middle-aged kids.